ABOUT VCU

Virginia Commonwealth University is a major urban research university with national and international rankings in sponsored research. Located in downtown Richmond, VCU enrolls nearly 31,000 students in 223 degree and certificate programs in the arts, sciences, and humanities. Sixty-eight of the programs are unique in Virginia, many of them crossing the disciplines of VCU's 13 schools and one college. Medical College of Virginia Hospitals and the health sciences schools of Virginia Commonwealth University comprise the VCU Medical Center, one of the nation's leading academic medical centers.

VCU SOP

Virginia Commonwealth University School of Pharmacy is at the scientific forefront in pharmacy, pharmaceuticals, and medicinal chemistry education and research. As pharmacy's role in team-based health care continues to evolve, the School's location at the VCU Medical Center offers students and faculty tremendous opportunities for interprofessional collaboration.

A leader in pharmacy education since its establishment in 1898, the School is committed to developing progressive models of pharmacy practice, especially for the underserved. Sensing the shifting demographics in the U.S. and abroad, the SOP has invested in ensuring the clinicians of tomorrow are well equipped to care for an aging population.

WHO WE ARE

UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY

What sets this program apart is the emphasis on community-dwelling older adults and transitions of care. Residents will gain experience caring for older adults in a variety of community settings (e.g., assisted living, public housing). Residents will care for patients in the acute setting, as is expected in most PGY-2 programs; however, this program will also ensure residents actively follow patients along the continuum of care.

RICHMOND, VA

The Richmond region offers the cultural and recreational opportunities of a large city with minimal traffic congestion and an average 24-minute commute. Not to mention Atlantic beaches, Blue Ridge mountain ski slopes and hiking, and Washington D.C.'s cultural amenities all within a two-hour drive!
